SENATOR RUMERY: The thing that bothers me a little bit, I guess, is that...

PRESIDENT: Are you still responding to a question? There are other lights on.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, I would ask unanimous consent to bracket this bill to one week from today to give Senator Rumery the opportunity to get the program statement to us on our desks and to the fiscal office and to the Governor's office as required by law.

PRESIDENT: Do you join in this request, Senator Rumery?

SENATOR RUMERY: Yes, that is fine.

PRESIDENT: Is there objection to...I think it is more appropriate that Senator Rumery ask for this. Is there an objection to the request? Seeing none, it is so ordered and the bill will be bracketed for one week. Okay, what do you have on your desk? Senator Cavanaugh, did you ask to be recognized for anything?
